The current situation map of Syrian nomadic and semi-nomadic communities living in Adana, Gaziantep, and Şanlıurfa.

Number of Households:

- Tent Settlement: 3,600,710
- Old Settlement Area: 1,057,232
- Number of Syrian adults in: 568,117
- Number of the children between the ages of 0-16: 1,672,430

Employment and Income Status:

- 2018: 119,837 (Syrians and others) work with a work permit
- Of these permissions, 7,093 were given in Gaziantep, 6,348 in Adana, and 517 in Şanlıurfa.

Registration Status:

- Syrian under temporary protection

Provinces where Syrian nomadic and semi-nomadic communities have migrated from: Adana, Gaziantep, and Şanlıurfa.

Health:

- It is determined that the lack of health services and the unmet need to provide health services for nomadic communities and semi-nomads living in Turkey are very high. In order to meet this need, local health services are needed by these communities in an effort to create a healthy and safe environment for the nomadic communities.

Settlements and Nomadic Status of Syrian Nomads and Semi-Nomads Communities:

- Settlements: 39
- Nomads: 6

Population in the 15-24 age age range of Syrians in Turkey: 765,547 people

- Average age of Syrians: 21.66
- Ratio of the Syrian young population to the total Syrian population: 21.35%

Syrians Under Temporary Protection By Years:

- 2014: 3,576,310
- 2015: 2,008,546
- 2016: 1,529,678
- 2017: 1,009,227
- 2018: 496,812
- 2019: 394,023
- 2020: 215,310

National and International Organizations:

- Local, national, and international organizations are working with Syrian nomadic and semi-nomadic communities.
- These include occasional assistance to these communities, temporary protection applications, and formal protection applications.
- In addition, local and national organizations are working together with NGOs such as CARE, UNICEF, and UNHCR, the local gypsy community, and Turkish gypsy families to send their children to school.

Source: Turkish Directorate General of Migration Management